

Dental Links

- City of Palo Alto:
<http://www.cityofpaloalto.org/depts/pwd/news/details.asp?NewsID=329&TargetID=150>
- King County (Seattle, Washington):
<http://www.kingcounty.gov/environment/wastewater/IndustrialWaste/GettingDischargeApproval/Dental.aspx>
- National Wildlife Organization:
<http://www.nwf.org/mercury/mercurytips.cfm>
- City of Wichita, Kansas:
<http://www.wichita.gov/CityOffices/WaterAndSewer/SewageTreatment/SilverMercury.html>
- Naval Institute for Dental and Biomedical Research:
<http://www.dentalmercury.com>
- NEWMOA Mercury-Dental Hub:
<http://www.newmoa.org/prevention/topichub/toc.cfm?hub=103&subsec=7&nav=7>
Clicking on this page's "Complete List of Links" looks like it might be a good way to find many other potentially useful sites.
- ADA's 2003 BMP document:
http://www.ada.org/prof/resources/topics/topics\_amalgamwaste.pdf
- ADA's comparisons of restorative materials:
<http://www.ada.org/prof/resources/topics/materials/index.asp>
This site might be useful to dentists considering alternatives to amalgam.